

Hush Kids - All My Love

tom:

D

I know what it takes to love
 I know how it feels to lose
 I know what it means to hold on
 So I'm holding on to you

Saw you in my dream
 But when I reached for you

You disappeared
 I know that I said some things
 I can't take them back but
 I want to, dear

I had to let you go
 To find what I needed most
 I'll give you everything

Gonna give you all my heart
 Gonna give you all my love

Gonna give you all my trust
 Gonna give you all my love

When I wandered from your arms
 I was searching for something else

Now I'm running back to you
 'Cause where you are is where I find myself

I had to let you go
 To find what I needed most
 I'll give you everything

Gonna give you all my heart
 Gonna give you all my trust
 Gonna give you all my love

Gonna give you all my heart
 Gonna give you all my trust
 Gonna give you all my love

Gonna give you all my days
