

I Prevail - My Heart I Surrender

Tom: C
Intro: Am C G

[Verse 1]

I'm a ghost in your eyes.
A shadow you can't seem to recognize.
I have a thought of you for every, star in the sky
But I'm scared, I'll never cross your mind.
Yeah, I'm scared.

[Chorus]

Will our stars ever align?
Will two hearts, beat in time?
These words you should always remember,
To you, my heart I surrender.
Chasing love that can never be mine.
Maybe one day you'll realize.
These words you should always remember,
To you, my heart I surrender.

[Instrumental Break]

Am C G (x2)

[Verse 2]

And I can't count the times.
I stayed awake pretending you were mine.
Now I'm left here with this emptiness

inside,
Why can't I make you mine?

[Chorus]

Will our stars ever align?
Will two hearts, beat in time?
These words you should always remember,
To you, my heart I surrender.
Chasing love that can never be mine.
Maybe one day you'll realize.
These words you should always remember,
To you, my heart I surrender.

[Instrumental Break]

[Chorus]

Will our stars ever align?
Will two hearts, beat in time?
These words you should always remember,
To you, my heart I surrender.

These words you should always remember,
To you, my heart I surrender.
