 Brick by brick

I'm building a house where I can think
 And have some balance and dignity
 I'm building a house where no one can hurt me

I'm buidling a house where the weak are strong
 I'm building a house with a real song
 I'm using a faith that is immortal

I'm building it with simplicity
 And the way that we feel, you and me
 I'm building it with what I believe in

So get off my dick
 'cause I'm building this
 Brick by brick
 Brick by brick
 Brick by brick
