                                                              We ain't never coming downstairs
[Primeira Parte]
                                                              Gods don't pray
                                                                         Em
No turning back, you know I seen too much
                                                              Gods don't pray, eh
My venom went and turned to rage
                                                              Save it for somebody that cares
Yeah, painted back, don't need a Midas touch
                                                              Gods don't pray
My sentiment is centre page
                                                              Gods don't pray, eh

[Pré-Refrão]
                                                              Love me, hate me and make me ugly
                                                              Break me and shame me
'Cause I've come, I've conquered, waters parted
                                                              You should see the view up here
Now I'm here to stay
                                                              Gods don't pray
I've won, I've lost, I've paid the cost
