

Imagine Dragons - Gold

Tom: C

Fast comes the blessing of all that you dreamed
 But then comes the curses of diamonds and rings
 Only at first did it have its appeal
 But now you can't tell the false from the real

Who can you trust? Who can you trust?

When everything, everything, everything you touch turns to gold, gold, gold.

Everything, everything, everything you touch turns to gold, gold.

Gold.

Gold.

Gold.

Gold.

Am F Am F

Statues and empires are all at your hands

Water to wine and the finest of sands

When all that you have's turnin' stale and it's cold

Oh, you no longer fear when your heart's turned to gold

Who can you trust? Who can you trust?

When everything, everything, everything you touch turns to gold, gold, gold.

Everything, everything, everything you touch turns to gold, gold.

Gold.

Gold.

Gold.

Gold.

I'm dying to feel again Oh, anything at all.

But, oh, I feel nothing, nothing, nothing, Nothing.

When everything, everything, everything you touch turns to gold, gold, gold.

Everything, everything, everything you touch turns to gold, gold.

Gold.

Gold.

Gold.

Gold.
