

Imagine Dragons - Unseen

tom:
 Broken homes, fighting brothers
 Drugs sold upon the streets
 Terrorism and alcoholism
 These selfish motives guide the world
 Weeping mothers, whoa, crying fathers
 What has this world come to?

They are so broken but, oh, we hear them singing, oh-oh-oh
 Whoa-oh-oh, whoa-oh-oh
 Can you believe it, it's what we're seeing?
 It's just a dream, dream, can you believe-lieve it?
 They are so broken but, oh, we hear them singing, oh-oh-oh
 Whoa-oh-oh, whoa-oh-oh
 Can you believe it, it's what we're seeing
 It's just a dream, dream, can you believe-lieve it?

Let me be your brother, you can be my sister
 We're singing to the people
 Let's live until we die

Grew up for business

I'll do whatever it takes
 Don't work a day unless you're paid
 One night stands and broken hearts
 We forgot how to love
 I'll shoot 'em up and take 'em down
 Oh, don't bleed on my ground

They are so broken but, oh, we hear them singing, oh-oh-oh
 Whoa-oh-oh, whoa-oh-oh
 Can you believe it, it's what we're seeing?
 It's just a dream, dream, can you believe-lieve it?
 They are so broken but, oh, we hear them singing, oh-oh-oh
 Whoa-oh-oh, whoa-oh-oh
 Can you believe it, it's what we're seeing
 It's just a dream, dream, can you believe-lieve it?

Let me be your brother, you can be my sister
 We're singing to the people
 Let's live until we die
 Let me be your brother, you can be my sister
 We're singing to the people
 Let's live until we die
