

INOHA - Seventh Heaven

tom:
[Refrão]

Oh won't you stay for the ride
Cuz oh the views will be nice
And the stories that we'll tell our friends
Will make 'em laugh until the party ends
Oh won't you stay for the ride
It's do or die
Let's turn this ten into eleven
And make a jump to seventh heaven

[Interlude]

[Primeira Parte]

Shopping carts and chronic pain
I'm nine years over drinking age
Is this how mom said it would be Cuz if so I've got sights to see
Strawberry fields and impossible heights
Lookin' for purpose and what I'll define
"Hope for the best" No I'm wastin' my time
Can't let these chances get out of my life
Once again, I won't be sittin'
And be livin' in the innocence
Watchin' others soar, as I descend the bottom sinkin' in Waitin' for somethin' to happen

[Refrão]

Oh won't you stay for the ride
Cuz oh the views will be nice
And the stories that we'll tell our friends
Will make 'em laugh until the party ends
Oh won't you stay for the ride
It's do or die
Let's turn this ten into eleven
And make a jump to seventh heaven

[Interlude]

[Segunda Parte]

Minimum wage
Putting minimal effort
Could hold on for money

And waste my potential
Skin rotting further
Though I'm not a relic
Relate with the elderly
Bones are upsetting
I try so hard
And it's just so much work
Hell I've slept in my car
For days and weeks, it hurts
That I can do so much
And never get that far
Yet still I'm pushing for something
I'm moving towards something

[Pré-Refrão]

Wait
I'm sick of waiting for yall
I'm done with wasting my time
Don't got that much to live for
Let's go for one hell of a ride
I'm sick of waiting for yall
I'm done with wasting my time
Don't got that much to live for

[Refrão]

Oh won't you stay for the ride
Cuz oh the views will be nice
And the stories that we'll tell our friends
Will make 'em laugh until the party ends
Oh won't you stay for the ride
It's do or die
Let's turn this ten into eleven
And make a jump to seventh heaven

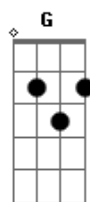

[Interlude]

[Final]

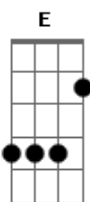

The ride
The ride
Won't you join the Ride
Won't you join the Ride
