                                                                                                                                            'Cause though the truth may vary
   Feeling my way through the darkness

I can't tell where the journey will end

   They tell me I'm too young to understand
                                                                                                                                            Tell her that I miss our little talks
   They say I'm caught up in a dream

                                                                                                                                            We used to play outside when we were young (and full of life and full of love)
  Well that's fine by me
