

Irish Rovers - The Drunk Scotsman

tom:

C
Well a Scotsman clad in kilt left a bar one evening fair
C G C F G
And one could tell by how he walked that he'd drunk more than his share
Am G F G
He fumbled round until he could no longer keep his feet
C G C F G C
Then he stumbled off into the grass to sleep beside the street
F C G
Ring ding diddle diddle I de oh ring di diddly I oh
C G C F G C
He stumbled off into the grass to sleep beside the street

C G C F G C
About that time two young and lovely girls just happened by
C G C F G
And one says to the other with a twinkle in her eye
Am G F G
See young sleeping Scotsman so strong and handsome built
C G C F G C
I wonder if it's true what they don't wear beneath the kilt
F C G
Ring ding diddle diddle I de oh ring di diddly I oh
C G C F G C
I wonder if it's true what they don't wear beneath the kilt

C G C F G C
They crept up on that sleeping Scotsman quiet as could be
C G C F G
Lifted up his kilt about an inch so they could see

Am G F G
And there behold, for them to view, beneath his Scottish skirt
C G C F G C
Was nothing more than God had graced him with upon his birth
F C G
Ring ding diddle diddle I de oh ring di diddly I oh
C G C F G C
Was nothing more than God had graced him with upon his birth

C G C F G C
They marveled for a moment, then one said we must be gone
C G C F F G
Let's leave a present for our friend, before we move along
Am G F G
As a gift they left a blue silk ribbon, tied into a bow
C G C F G C
Around the bonnie star, the Scots kilt did lift and show
F C G
Ring ding diddle diddle I de oh ring di diddly I oh
C G C F G C
Around the bonnie star, the Scots kilt did lift and show

C G C F G C
Now the Scotsman woke to nature's call and stumbled toward the trees
C G C F F G
Behind a bush, he lifts his kilt and gawks at what he sees
Am G F G
And in a startled voice he says to what's before his eyes
C G C F G C
O lad I don't know where you been but I see you won first prize
F C G
Ring ding diddle diddle I de oh ring di diddly I oh
C G C F G C
O lad I don't know where you been but I see you won first prize
