Intro: Interlúdio

( E G C D )

And if you're taking a walk through the garden of life
 What do you think you'd expect you would see?
 Just like a mirror reflecting the moves of your life
 And in the river reflections of me
 Just for a second a glimpse of my father I see
 And in a movement he beckons to me
 And in a moment the memories are all that remain
 And all the wounds are reopening again

Refrão:

We're blood brothers x4

( E G C D )

And as you look all around at the world in dismay
 What do you see, do you think we have learned
 Not if you're taking a look at the war torn affraid
 Out in the streets where the babies are burned

[Refrão]

[Interlúdio]

( E G C D )

There are times when I feel I'm afraid for the world
 There are times I'm ashamed of us all
 When you're floating on all the emotion you feel
 And reflecting the good and the bad.
 Will we ever know what the answer to life really is?
 Can you really tell me what life is?
 Maybe all the things that you know that are precious to you
 Could be swept away by fate's own han

[Solo 3]

When you think that we've used all our chances
 And the chance to make everything right,
 Keep on making the same old mistakes
 Makes untipping the balance so easy
 When we're living our lives on the edge
 Say a prayer on the book of the dead

[Solo 3] - (distorcido)
