Bring Your Daughter to the Slaughter Solo tab from the album-no prayer for the dying. written by bruce dickinson. tabbed by yours truly-Jonathan Howard

w/bar

rake pick across strings

lines may appear screwed up because im kak at writing tab up on the computer.

this solo is a very difficult one because most of the notes are picked as opposed to using hammering on and off. focus on practising it very slowly and increase your speed with a metronome. please feel free to add tab to your work and around the internet but please put my name with it because it took months to work out.
have fun
