 Tell me baby, tell me
 Are you still on the stoop watching the windows close?
 I've not seen you lately
 On the street by the beach or places we used to go

 I've a picture of you on our favorite day by the seaside

Abm
 There's a bird stealing bread that I brought out from under my nose

 Tell me baby, tell me
 Does his company make light of a rainy day
 How I've missed you lately
 And the way you would speak, and all that we wouldn't say

 Do his hand in your hair feel a lot like a thing you believe in

Or a bit like a bird stealing bread out from under your nose?

 If I see you again on the street by the beach in the evening
 Will you fly like a bird stealing bread out from under my nose?
