Riff 1
Found your mittens behind a box of pictures
Riff 1

You would wear them before I brewed the tea
Riff 1
That's one memory I can easily conjure
Riff 1ETC
A weary memory I can always see

Found your rosary broken into pieces
Every night, by the bed, you'd kiss the beads
Those are moments that I can always relive
Weary memories I can always see

Found a photo of you when we were married
Leaning back on a broken willow tree
That's one memory that I choose to carry
A weary memory I can always see
