

Isabella Hixson - Reaching Out

tom: Intro: A Cm D A EHe is calling out your name Through the dark, through the storm 'Cause He knows where you belong He will help you find the way  $\frac{D}{\text{He's the light in your heart}}$ And He wants to bring you home So, give your will to Him That's when the miracles begin When your hope is fading And the stars refuse to shine Though you're stumbling in the dark He knows right where you are When the waves are crashing And your burdens drag you down He is waiting there for you A Cm D A E And His hand is reaching out He will lift you to your feet He will stay by your side And He'll warm you with his light

So, give your will to Him That's when the miracles begin When your hope is fading And the stars refuse to shine Though you're stumbling in the dark He knows right where you are When the waves are crashing And your burdens drag you down He is waiting there for you  $\frac{1}{2}$ And His hand is reaching out But he won't take your hand until you reach for it So, reach for Him A When your hope is fading D And the stars refuse to shine Though you're stumbling in the dark He knows right where you are When the waves are crashing And your burdens drag you down He is waiting there for you He is waiting there for you A Cm D A E A And His hand is reaching out

Acordes

