

Isabella Richardson - Galaxies

tom:

C
The thoughts of stars I cannot wish upon
I'll fathom them into constellations
My minds a map, with the journey
Just throwing arrows to reach it's final destination

C G
And as much as I need to believe I'm right
I'm reminded that I could be wrong
That I can withstand all these elements
And break boundaries on my own

Am G F
He told me I was a beautiful girl
With an imagination stretched on for galaxies
Into the unknown

C G
I am broken but I'm fixable
And that's the worst kind
'Cause it means all the pressure's on me
And I am broken but I'm beautiful
And that's the best kind
'Cause it means I am uniquely me

F G
So take it easy on my mind and my body
'Cause it's broken and it's scarred
And it's making breathing hard

C G
I love these moments of nothingness
Capturing fume bliss out of thin air
'Cause other than your soul and your mind
Everything else just fades over time

Am F
And I mean maybe I'm searching for something more
That my greatness taking a couple of steps
Closer to the beautiful girl
You see with galaxies in her mind

Am G F
He told me I was a beautiful girl
Who has so much more potential in her words
To change this world

C G
I am broken but I'm fixable
And that's the worst kind
'Cause it means all the pressure's on me
And I am broken but I'm beautiful
And that's the best kind
'Cause it means I am uniquely me

C G
I am broken but I'm fixable
Am Am F
I am broken but I'm beautiful

I feel it all, I feel it all at once
G
I feel it all at once
Am Am
I feel it all, I feel it all at once
F
I feel it all at once

I feel it all, I feel it all at once
I feel it all once
Am Am
I feel it all, I feel it all at once
I feel it all at once

F G C F
He told me I was a beautiful girl
With an imagination stretched on for galaxies
