

Isak Danielson - I Am Falling In Love

```
tom:
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   I will give my all to be near you
                                                            C (forma dos acordes no tom de G )
Capostraste na 5º casa
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   [Refrão]
Intro: F C F C F E Am
                              G F C
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   I wanted to stay
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   I wanna do everything for you
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Wish I could say something only we knew
If I told you what I felt
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   To make you fall
I would watch you walk away
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Fm
                                          Ε
                                                                            Am
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Into the feelings I feel
You're not ready to feel what I feel my babe
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Am
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  I can't pretend like I'm not falling in love F E Am C D
                                C
Sorry for my words
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    'Cause I'm falling in love
Sorry for the distance
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   [Ponte]
                                       E Am
But I can't pretend like I'm not falling in love
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          C
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   I've grown so used to this
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Your touch is what I missed
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   F E Am
If I should be honest I'll miss you, I'll miss you
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   So I still need you to promise
I would give my heart to be near you, near you
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   You can't tell me you want less
                                                         C F
Baby, you need time, I might too
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   I will call you in August
                       E Am
When I am back home will I be finding you?
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  And sing you my chorus, oh baby
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   [Refrão]
I wanted to stay
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  I wanted to stay
I wanna do everything for you
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   I wanna do everything for you
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               Am
                                              Am
Wish I could say something only we knew
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Wish I could say something only we knew
To make you fall
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   I wanted to stay
Into the feelings I feel
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 Em
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  I wanna do everything for you
                        Am
I can't pretend like I'm not falling in love
                                                                         F E Am C D
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Wish I could say something only we knew
 'Cause I'm falling in love
[Segunda Parte]
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   To make you fall
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Fm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Into the feelings I feel
I met some of your friends the other day % \left\{ 1\right\} =\left\{ 1\right\} =\left
                          E Am
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   I can't pretend like I'm not falling in love
                                                                                           G
They say you want to but your heart is afraid
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           F E Am C D
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    'Cause I'm falling in love
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   [Final] F E Am G F C
Acordes
                                                                                                                                                  ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            ukulele-chords.com
```

If I should be honest I'll miss you, I'll miss you