

Isla Vista Worship - Captured

```
You were good to me before I knew Your name
                          tom:
                                                           Am Bm Bm Em Dm G
               Fm
                                                            Your grace freed me from my selfish pain, my selfish pain
Intro: C B B Em Dm G
                                                           C Am Bm Em Dm G C I was lost and I felt the need, the need for You
 Pain makes my questions grow too large
                                                                            G
                                                           How could I ever leave?
               G
 And I feel that I've gone far
                                                                   B7 B7
C Am G
 My memory fails me right
                                                           Cause You've captured my heart
                                                           Em Dm G C B B7 Em
In ways I didn't know I could be captured
C G
I get enslaved to my own mind
C Am G Forgetfulness of Your grace
                                                            Dm G C B7 B7
Dh, You've captured my heart
Em Dm G C B B7 Em
C Am G
Drags me around for miles
                                                           In ways I didn't know I could be captured
                        Dm G
  Em Bm
                                   C CG Am G
                                                            Dm G C Am
Until I see, until I see the corner of Your smile, oh - ohh
                                                           Oh-ohh-oh-oh-ohh
                                                           G C Am
                                                            Yeah-yeah-yeah-yeah
 You were good to me before I knew Your name
C Am Em Dm
                                                            Oh-ohh-oh-oh-ohh
 Your grace freed me from a selfish pain
C B B Em Dm G C
I was lost and I felt the need, the need for You
                                                             Am Am G
                                                             Ohh-oh-oh- oh oh-oh
                 G
How could I ever leave?
                                                                        B B7
        B7 B7
                                                           Jesus, You've captured my heart
Cause You've captured my heart

Em Dm G C Bm Bm Em

In ways I didn't know I could be captured
                                                            Em Dm G C B B7 Em
                                                           In ways I didn't know I could be captured
                                                           Dm G C B B7
Oh, You've captured my heart
Em Dm G C
Dm G C B7 B7
Oh, You've captured my heart {\sf Em} \qquad {\sf Dm} \ {\sf G} \qquad {\sf C} \qquad {\sf B} \ {\sf B} \ {\sf Em} \ {\sf Dm} \ {\sf G}
                                                                                  C B B7
                                                           In ways I didn't know I could be captured
In ways I didn't know I could be captured
                                                            Em Dm G
                                                           Oh-ohh-oh-oh-ohh
I fall so short from what I can't achieve
C Am G
                                                            Ohh-oh-oh-oh
 Start to agree with what I don't believe
                                                           C Am G G
C Am B Em Dm
My sensory fails the truth
                                                            C Am
                                                                        G
G C Am G
As I disremember who I am in You
                                                           And how could I ever leave?
                                                           C Am G
                                                            How could I ever leave?
C Am G
 Forgetfulness of Your grace
                                                           C Am G
Drags me around for miles
  Am B B Em G G
                                    C B B Em Dm G
                                                           You've been so, You've been so kind
Until I see, until I see the corner of Your smile, oh-oh-
                                                           Am Cm G
                                                           Oh-oh, I'm safe right here
```

Acordes

