Why can't we dream forever?
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     G (Em D C)
Why can't we stop and try?
                                             I could stay crying in my bed
                      But I know I can't die or lost my head
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    G
                                 Yes I know I was just one more in your \sin
 A winner never quits, and a quitter never wins!!
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        D
                                             You can't play all the time % \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) \left( 1
 Sometimes you lost your joke hide in your cards
                                         G
 So why
                                 Why can't we stay together?
                                 Why can't we live one life?
                                 Why can't we dream forever?
\mbox{${\bf G}$ ( Em $D$ C )} Why can't we stop and try?
