All of this time I thought we were pretending

You have broken into my heart

Nothing can keep me away from this feeling
Gb Bm
I know I am simply falling for you

Bm
I'm taking time to envision where your heart is
G
And justify why you're gone for the moment
Em
I tumble sometimes, looking for sunshine
Gb
And you know this is right when you look into my eyes

Bm
You show me love, you show me love
You show me everything my heart is capable of

And now I can't break away from this fire that we started

In your arms I'm falling deeper

And there's nothing to break me away from this
