

J. Geils Band - Angel In Blue

tom:

Intro: E B Dbm A E

[Primeira Parte]

We met in a bar, out on Chesapeake Bay
 With her white patent boots
 And her blouse, red leme
 A tabletop dancer, she would smile on cue
 Ah, those lips of an angel, angel in blue

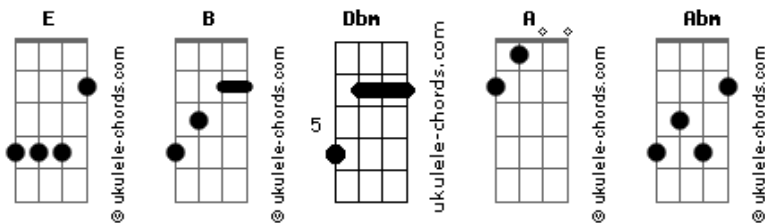

[Segunda Parte]

She'd been dancing for ages
 Through cities of bars
 She was kicking the habit
 Of scoring in cars
 She'd been drained of her spirit
 All caged up in a zoo
 Ah, a wildcat angel, angel in Blue

[Ponte]

And as she stared out into nowhere
 I thought, yes I thought she might
 Break down and cry
 Oh, when I whispered I thought

Acordes

I could love her
 She just said "Baby
 Don't even bother to try"
 [Terceira Parte]
 And I watched as she spoke
 Her words chilled my bones
 All her friends did her favors
 That were really just loans
 And she never had dreams
 So they never came true
 Ah, the palest of angels, angel in Blue
 [Quarta Parte]
 And the bees they had stung her
 The birds they had flown
 There were guys she could number
 But none had she known
 And she never had dreams
 So they never came true
 Ah, my fade away angel angel in Blue
 [Final]
