

J.A. Thomas - You Said Goodbye

Tom: G

All the time
 You said goodbye
 And that is the destiny
 There's no more hope in you and I
 I thought love would last forever
 And we're belonged to each other
 But we are free to choose our way
 So that we know less where it will arrive
 There is always one chance of coming back
 When there is love I know
 Now you don't love me more
 Because you said goodbye

When I had meet you
 It seemed that all be alright
 Love became so great between us
 I never though it would have an end
 But all at once everything changed
 And no more we could see ourselves
 Neither to say love thing's
 Lessly to love us
 You said goodbye
 And was kept in my memory
 You tell me goodbye
