Now I see your face and I just don't know you

F
Like the picture's there but it's not quite focused

Am
And I know it won't, but I'm still here hoping

That it gets better now

Dm
It gets better now, yeah

[Refrão]

Dm
No more late nights, us just talking

F
Used to FaceTime, now you just calling

Am Em
It's no one's fault but some things just fall apart, yeah

Dm
I smoke two cigarettes and I don't even smoke, no

F
Now the sun's coming up and I'm halfway sober

G
(You got me fucked up, damn)

Dm
I'm really tryin' to let go

But I can't delete the messages

When you said you'd be my girl forever, shit

F
Now it's been a week and it's really starting to settle in

We were movin' full speed, now we're just back-pedalin'

Am
All those other couples that were fallin' out of love

We would always talk about how we were so far ahead of them

G
Energy between us, it was heaven sent

Then it went straight from A to the negatives

Dm
Outta control, that was after I got off of the road

You hadn't seen me in like, 45 days

F
I could tell it in your face

Yes, something was up

My arms opened wide

Open, waiting for you to jump

But you just walked up slow

Am
Nah, wait, this ain't the girl I know

C'mon, where she at?

Give her back

Em
Just makin' my jokes, didn't even crack a smile, damn

That's all it took for me to know there was another man

It's all downhill

[Refrão]
