

Jack Johnson - Adrift

Tom: C

O C deve ser tocado segundo o riff a seguir. O C deve ser tocado com batida normal.

Riff:

Acordes:

C x32010

F 133211

G 320003

Am x02210

Intro: C 4x

C Your voice is adrift, I can't expect it to sing to me F

As if I was the only one I'll follow you C F

The leaf that's following the sun C

When will my weight be too much for you? G

When will these ideas really be my own? Am G F

C Cause this moment keeps on moving

G We were never meant to hold on C

C This was a scene worth waking up for when I woke up F

C you planted me in my own body

F Don't know why but somehow it just feels so wrong C

G When you're sad I will be lonely

Am But when you rise again I'll become the sun G F

C I will shine down upon you

G As if you were the only one C

C Your voice is your own, I can't protect it

F You'll have to sing a verse no one has ever known C

F Don't be afraid 'cause no one ever sings alone C

G Your way will never be too much for me

Am Your ideas have always been your own G F

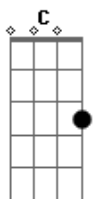

C And this moment keeps on moving

G We were never meant to hold on C

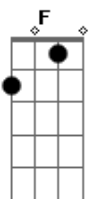

Fade:

C C F C F

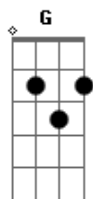

Acordes

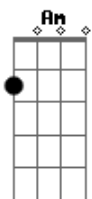

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com