

Jack Johnson - All At Once

Tom: C

(intro) Am C F Dm C

All at once

The world can overwhelm me

There's almost nothing that you could tell me

That could ease my mind

Which way will you run

When it's always all around you

And the feeling lost and found you again

A feeling that we have no control

Around the sun, some say

It's going to be the new hell, some say

It's still too early to tell, some say

Some say it really ain't no myth at all

We keep asking ourselves

Are we really strong enough

There're so many things

That we got too proud of

Too proud of, too proud of

I want to take the preconceived

Out from underneath your feet

We could shake it off

And instead we'll plant some seeds

We'll watch them as they grow

And with each new beat

From your heart the roots grow deeper

The branches well they reach for what

Nobody really knows

But underneath it all

There's this heart all alone

What about when it's gone

It really won't be so long

Sometimes it feels like a heart

Is no place to be singing from at all

There's a world we've never seen

There's still hope between the dreams

The weight of it all could blow away with a breeze

But if you're waiting on the wind

Don't forget to breathe

Because as the darkness gets deeper

We're sinking so we reach for love

At least something we can hold

But I will reach to you

From where time just can't go

What about when it's gone

It really won't be so long

Sometimes it feels like a heart

Is no place to be singing from at all
