

Jack Johnson - Constellations

Tom: Bb

(com acordes na forma de A)
 Capotraste na 1ª casa
 Riff

Intro: Riff

Ab
 The light was leaving in the west it was blue
 Db Ab
 The children's laughter sang
 And skipping just like the stones they threw
 Db Db
 Their voices echoed across the way
 Eb7
 It's getting late....

Ab Gb Db
 And it was just another night
 Eb7 Ab
 With a sunset and a moonrise
 Gb Db Eb7
 Not so far behind to give us just enough light
 Ab Gb Db
 To lay down underneath the stars
 Eb7 Ab
 We listened to papa's translations
 Gb Db
 Of the stories across the skies
 Eb7 Ab
 We drew our own constellations

Solo

Ab
 The west winds often last too long
 Db
 And when they calm down, nothing ever
 Ab
 feels the same
 Sheltered under the Kamani tree
 Db Ab
 Waiting for the passing rain
 Clouds keep moving to uncover the sea
 Db Ab
 Stars up above us chasing the day away
 To find the stories that we sometimes need
 Db
 Listen close enough and all else fades
 Eb7
 Fades away

Ab Gb Db
 And it was just another night
 Eb7 Ab
 With a sunset and a moonrise
 Gb Db Eb7
 Not so far behind to give us just enough light
 Ab Gb Db
 To lay down underneath the stars
 Eb7
 Listen to all translations
 Ab Gb Db
 Of the stories across the sky
 Eb7
 We drew our own constellations

Riff

Acordes

