

Jack Johnson - Is One Moon Enough

Tom: D
Intro: D

[Primeira Parte]

D
Is one moon enough
D
If I can see
G
With my cheap telescope?
E G
Bet my neighbor has two or three
D
Down soon enough
D
What does it mean
G
If every time I look up
G
I see them
E G
Laughing down on me?
[Refrão]

A G D D
Take that moon or break across the sea
A G D D
Everything I want's just out of reach

[Segunda Parte]

D
Is one moon enough
D
Well, it used to be
G
When I could see with my own naked eye
E G
She was smiling down on me

D
Is one ever enough?
D
How could it ever be if my neighbor has more than me
G
And my moon
E G
Just out of reach

[Refrão]

A G D D
Take that moon or break across the sea
A G D D
Everything I want is further from me
D D D
Hmm, hmm, hmm

D
Moon down soon enough
D
Now I can see a million moons that think of
G
Me and my moons
E G
Always following me

[Terceira Parte]

A G D D
Take that moon or break across the sea
A G D D
Everything I want is just out of reach (hmm, hmm)
A G D D
Why's that moon always following me? (hmm, hmm)
A G D D
Everything I want's just out of reach (hmm, hmm)
D D D
Hmm, hmm, hmm
