

Jack Johnson - Losing Keys

Tom: G

Tocar apenas uma vez cada acorde.
 Don't worry
 Everybody in the room notices you
 Sit back and relax
 The night is early
 We are about to overdo it
 So come and tell me something that you've already told me
 Cause everybody's heard our lovely stories
 I'm hoping some of them are true
 I've been losing lots of keys lately,
 I don't know what that means
 But maybe I've been better off with things that can't be locked at all
 I've been feeling kind of sea sick lately,
 See you reaching to me gonna save me
 You were me, I would much rather take the fall
 The world has its ways
 To quiet us down
 The world has its ways
 To quiet us down comes the rain

Down comes our spirits again
 But down comes the strength
 To lift us up and then...
 Tchuru .. tchururu...
 Been going upwind now
 For too long
 Forget how
 To let go
 Seems too hard
 Too late now
 To turn around
 The world has its ways
 To quiet us down
 The world has its ways
 To quiet us down comes the rain
 Down comes our spirits again
 Down comes the strength
 To lift us up and then...
 Repete até terminar
 Tchuru .. tchururu...
