E
When your mind is a mess so is mine
A
I can't sleep cause it hurts
Gbm
when I think my thoughts aren't at peace
A
with the plans that we make, the chances
we take they're not yours they're not mine
E
there's waves that can break all the words
A
that we said and the words that we mean
Gbm
words can fall short can't see the unseen
A
cause the world is awake for somebody's sake

now please close your eyes woman please get some sleep E

E B A
and know that if I knew all of the answers
E B A
I would not hold them from you know all of the things
E B A
that I know we told each other "There is no other Gbm A way" Mmmmm mmm mmm mmmm

E
Well too much silence can be misleading you're
drifting

I can hear it in the way that you're breathing we Gbm
don't really need to find reason 'cause out the same
A
door

that it came well it's leaving, it's leaving.

E
Leaving like a day that's done and part of a season
A
resolve is just a concept that's as dead as the leaves
Gbm
but at least we could sleep it's all that we need when
A
we wake we would find our minds will be free to go to E B A E
sleep and know that if I knew all the answers I would not hold
B A E
them from you know all the things that I know cause we B A Gbm
told each other there is no other way...
A E
mmm mmm mmmm
