

Jack Johnson - Red Wine, Mistakes, Mythology

Tom: G

D F Gb G
 Everybody is made of clay
Bb B D
 That's what they used to say
F Gb G
 Til the truth stepped on us all
Bb B D
 Now everything that was big is small
F Gb G
 Were just little crying robots
Bb B D
 Program me I wanna win the race
 I wanna find the place
F Gb G
 Where the king locked up the princess
Bb B D
 Jump the fence and drink a little bit of

Refrão:
D G
 Red wine, mistakes, apologies

And it's all just
C G
 Red wine, headaches, mythology (2x)

Solo: D F Gb G Bb B D

F Gb G
 Now who is the king of the sky
Bb B D
 Jupiter says oh me oh my oh why
F Gb G
 Is the game always changing
Bb B D
 I've been through some strangeness
F Gb G
 What's the matter is the feast not fat enough
Bb B D
 Up the ladder with your feet
 Reaching with your hands
F Gb G
 You can feel it and dream it

I know you want to believe it

Just steal it anekatips
Bb B D
 Take a piece of the sun

And drink some

Refrão:
D G
 Red wine, mistakes, apologies

And it's all just
C G
 Red wine, headaches, mythology (2x)

Solo: D F Gb G Bb B D

F Gb G
 Now everybody's in the play
Bb B D
 At least that's what the script told me to say
F Gb G
 I'd say: shadows cut across the heros face

He falls from grace
Bb B D
 Until a little bird sang:
F Gb G
 The truth is never ending
Bb B D
 We're just here pretending
F Gb G
 Let's all laugh so that we don't cry
 Let's all lift our glasses up to the sky

For some

Refrão:
D G
 Red wine, mistakes, apologies

And it's all just
C G
 Red wine, headaches, mythology (2x) (2x)

Acordes

