

Jack Johnson - Same Girl

Tom: G
Intro: dução 2x:

G Am
If you could read my mind
D7 G
You'd say baby you where right
Am D
And I don't want to fight anymore
G Am
You're usually righter than I am
D G Am
And I'm not a very good fighter am I?
D G Am
No neither are you
D G
So let's be through with this one
Em C D
Because some things never change

G
I know you're still my same girl
Am D7 G
Who builds her own frames
G Em
For the pictures that she paintes
D7 C
Of the lights of Monterey
C Am
Coming across the bay
D G Am D7 G
Right back to my same girl, hmm hmmm hmmm hmm

Intro: dução 1x

G Am
How can you be so calm
D G
When the truth is that sometimes
Am D
We live in the eye of the storm
G Am
With everything going on around us
D G
I feel comfort in the sounds when you say
Em G
It will be okay like the star guiding me
Em
To the light of the day
C D
The doldrums could follow me

G
But with my same girl
Am D G
Who builds her own frames
G Em
For the pictures that she paintes
D C
Of the lights of Monterey
C Am
Coming across the bay
D G Am D G
Right back to my same girl, hum hum hum hum
