[Primeira Parte]

I Lived awhile without ya
 Darn near half my life
 I no longer see our unborn children
 Under you my unwed wife
 But yesterday I had a vision
 Under a tree where we once talked
 Of an old couple burning their love letters
 So that the children won't be shocked

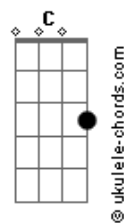

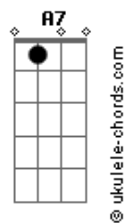

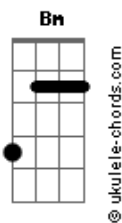

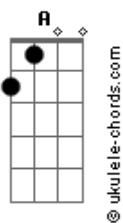

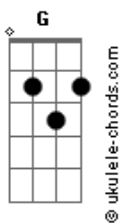

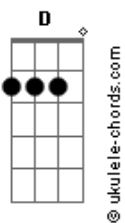

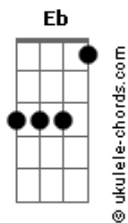

[Refrão]

Love calls just like the wild birds
 It's another day
 Spring wind blew my list of
 Things to do away
 ( D G D G )
 ( D G D G )

[Segunda Parte]

All my friends are getting older
 I guess I must be too
 Without their loving kindness
 I don't know what I'd do

Acordes

Oh the wine bottles half empty
 The money's all been spent
 And we're across between our parents
 And hippies in a tent

[Refrão]

Love calls just like the wild birds
 It's another day
 Spring wind blew my list of
 Things to do away
 ( D G D G )
 ( D G D G )

[Terceira Parte]

In a mucked up lovely river
 I cast my little fly
 I look at that river and I smell it
 It makes my want to cry
 Oh to clean our dirty planet
 Now there's a noble wish
 But I'm putting my shoulder to the wheel
 Cause I wanna catch some fish

[Refrão]

Love calls just like the wild birds
 It's another day
 Spring wind blew my list of
 Things to do away
