

Jack Johnson - Tape Deck

Tom: Bb
Intro: (Bb Eb Eb F)(x2)

(primeira parte)

Bb Eb
From my tape deck there's a recklessness

F
Inflections of the world we want

Bb Eb
All my friends, my rusty truck

F
We're just specks of love, directionless

Bb Eb
Call this band just what we want

F
We can change the name from month to month

Bb Eb
Four guitars and zero drums

F E Eb
We sounded folk but we wanted to be punk

F Eb
In a world post punk

Bb Eb
My friend had an old guitar

F
He took some lessons didn't get very far

Bb Eb
An Ibanez with one knob stuck

F
Said, "You can have that thing for fifty bucks"

Bb Eb
Laura got a bass but it got no amp

F
Borrowed skills but never gave it back

Bb Eb
Luke is just learning how to strum

But since he was the worst

F E Eb
We made him play the drums

Eb E F
Play the drums

(refrão)

Bb
You may find

Eb
In the palm

F
Of your hand

Eb
There's a flame

Bb
As it burns

Eb
As it climes

F
As it turns

Eb
To a blaze

Bb
Well this flame

Eb
It won't last

F
Here it comes

Eb
Hold it close

Bb
Cause this blaze

Eb
Can be fast

F Eb
Set it free now there it goes

(Bb Eb F)

(segunda parte)

Bb Eb
Luke's mom said that after school

F
We could rehearse in the living room

Bb Eb
But that sure didn't last too long

F
Guess she didn't know we'd play Fugazi songs

Bb Eb
We played these songs in the talent show

F
And all of the girls would be in the front row

Bb Eb
But in the end we just chickened out

Because we can't sing

F
We can only shout

Only shhh

(refrão)
