

Jack Johnson - What You Thought You Needed

Tom: C

(intro 4x) C

C I'll can't give you everything you want C
 But I could give you what you thought you needed. Dm
 Dm A map to keep beneath your sit,
 Dm your breath to me in time i'll get you there. C C
 Dm C
 So fold it up so we don't find our way back soon , nobody knows we are here.

C We could park the van and walk to town , C
 C find the cheapest bottle of wine that we could find.. Dm
 Dm C
 and talk about the rule behind our get in love.. is not a waste of time. Dm
 C C
 The water moor will take us home in the moment we will sing as the forest sleeps.

Em Dm C C

Its all, for the sake of arriving with you , well its all, for the sake of arriving with you C C

C C
 I'll make the table into a bed,
 C the candle is burning down its time to rest. Dm
 Dm Dm
 C C
 Can't take back things already gone, but I could give you promises for keeps. Dm
 C C
 Now it only take them back if they become your only you give'em to me .

Em Dm C C
 And its all, for the sake of arriving with you , well its all, for the sake of arriving with you C C

Em Dm
 C C
 We could make this into anything we could make this into more than words we speak Dm
 C C
 This could make us into anything it could make us grow and become what we'll be mmmmmm .. It's just like it feels

Acordes

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com