

Jack Savoretti - Not Worthy

Tom: A

Rollin' and a rockin' on a late night
 Trying to beat the devil at a fist fight
 Looking for a friend in a bottle of red
 Making up a word thats never been said
 Waiting in line for the next fine
 Making up a rhyme but it don't rhyme
 Baby, I'm a loser at this game
 If you could see me now you'd be ashamed of me, be ashamed of me
 Cause I'm not worthy of your love
 Im barely keeping up
 Feels like every single day, all i ever do is say i'm sorry
 I guess that i'm not worthy of your love
 Every night living like a runaway
 Trying to make it back for the break of day

I never learn from my mistakes
 So much for my great escape
 Put my future on the back burner
 Grew up fast but i'm a slow learner
 Only got myself to blame
 If you could see me now you'd be ashamed of me, so ashamed of me
 Cause I'm not worthy of your love
 Im barely keeping up
 Feels like every single day, all i ever do is say i'm sorry
 I guess that i'm not worthy of your love
 How could you possibly love someone like me?
 A fool i'll always be
 Cause I'm not worthy of your love
 Im barely keeping up
 Feels like every single day, all i ever do is say i'm sorry
 I guess that i'm not worthy of your love
