

Jack Stauber - Oh Klahoma

Tom: G
 Intro: Em Am G
           Em Am G

G                  C7M
 Set the phasers to rot
 G                  C7M
 What has got you distraught?
                   Em                  Am
 It's negative attention at best

But call it nothing

G
 Maybe it's something, a little bit, a little bit
 G
 Maybe it's something, do a little bit, a little bit

                  Em                  Am
 It's all about ascension, I guess
                   G
 Don't put me to rest

Em C7M
 Go on and hand me your clothes (there you go)
 Em C7M
 Take a picture or two (two, bad feeling)
 Em C7M
 I can see you (oh)

G                  C7M
 Tears falling down at the party
 G                  C7M
 Saddest little baby in the room
 Em                  Am
 Fears, tell me fears, don?t get me started
                   G
 I get a little grey hair for every scare you share

Em                  Am
 Those aren't meant to bend
                   G
 No, those aren't meant to bend

G                  C7M
 I hear your eyes
                   G
 And I see those cries
                   C7M
 I hear those eyes
                   Em
 And I see those cries
                   C7M                  G
 I can't be the only one who hears you

G                  C7M
 Tears falling down at the party
 G                  C7M
 Saddest little baby in the room
 Em                  Am
 Fears, tell me fears, don?t get me started
                   G
 I get a little grey hair for every scare you share

Em                  Am
 Those aren't meant to bend
                   G
 No, those aren't meant to bend

G                  C7M
 Tears falling down at the party
 G                  C7M
 Saddest little baby in my eye
 Em                  Am
 Fears, tell me fears, don?t get me started
                   G
 I might die
