tom:
 Capotraste na 1ª casa
 Intro: Am Em G D
 Am Em G D

This is morning
 G It's when I spend the most time
 F7M C Thinking 'bout what I've given up
 Am Em This is a warning
 G When you start the day
 D Just to close the curtains
 F7M G You're thinking 'bout what I've given up
 F7M Am Where are you now?
 C D As I'm swimming through this stereo
 F7M C G I'm writing you a symphony of sound
 F7M Am Where are you now?
 C D As we rearrange these songs again
 F7M C G This mix could burn a hole in anyone
 Am Em G D It was you I was thinking of
 Am Em G D It was you I was thinking of
 Am Em I read your letter
 G D F7M The one you left when you broke into my house
 C G I'm retracing every step you made
 Am Em And you said you meant it
 G D There's a piece of me in every single F7M C G

second of every single day
 F7M G But if its true to tell me how we got this way
 F7M Am Where are you now?
 C D As I'm swimming through this stereo
 F7M C G I'm writing you a symphony of sound
 F7M Am Where are you now?
 C D we rearrange these songs again
 F7M C G This mix could burn a hole in anyone
 F7M C G It was you I was thinking of
 F7M C G It was you I was thinking of
 F7M C G I can't get to you
 F7M C G I can't get to you
 F7M C G And I can't get to you you you
 F7M Am Where are you now?
 C D As I'm swimming through this stereo
 F7M C G I conduct a symphony of sound
 F7M Am Where are you now?
 C D As I'm cutting through you track by track
 F7M C G I swear to god this mix could sink the sun F7M C G But it was you I was thinking of
 F7M C G Where are you now?
 F7M C G Where are you now?
 F7M Am G This is my mixed tape for her
 F7M Am G D F7M Its like I wrote every note with my own fingers
