

Jacob Lee - Demons

tom:

Intro: Em C Em C

[Primeira Parte]

My heart is weak
Tear it down piece by piece

Leave me to think
Deep in my structure

I think I still love her

But I need some sleep

You've taken my breath away

Now I want to breathe

'Cause I cannot see what you can see

So easily

[Refrão]

I thought my demons were almost defeated

But you took their side

And you pull them to freedom

They know my secrets and won't let me go

Won't let me go

I thought my demons were almost defeated

But you took their side

And you pull them to freedom

I kept your secrets and I thought that

You would do the same

[Segunda Parte]

Leave me in peace

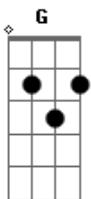

Caught in my memories

Lost underneath

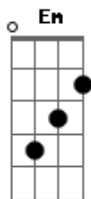

Deep in my structure

I feel a rupture

From where she should be
You've taken my breath from me

Now I want to breathe

'Cause I cannot see what you can see

So easily

[Refrão]

I thought my demons were almost defeated

But you took their side

And you pull them to freedom

They know my secrets and won't let me go

Won't let me go

I thought my demons were almost defeated

But you took their side

And you pull them to freedom

I kept your secrets and I thought that

You would do the same

[Ponte]

Take me away

[Refrão]

I thought my demons were almost defeated

But you took their side

And you pull them to freedom

They know my secrets and won't let me go

Won't let me go

I thought my demons were almost defeated

But you took their side

And you pull them to freedom

I kept your secrets and I thought that

You would do the same
