

Jake Bugg - Indigo Blue

tom:

C

Hovering down, pitting at the question howl

Maybe I'm weird, would explain why I'm so scared

Area grey scared of being wrong, I stay

And as I fear, everything's still unclear

From the top of this mountain

Beyond the horizon

Indigo blue

Puddling all over my eyes

(C Am G)

My body is bruised, the colour of indigo blue

My mind confused, why I'm no one that you choose?

I wish the noise would cover up my conscience voice

Every bad dream I'm told that it's not my choice

From the top of this mountain

Beyond the horizon

Indigo blue

Puddling all over my eyes

And I'll always make pain-making mistakes

But I don't care if you're mine

And if my heart breaks, keep our pictures on display

'Cause I'll love you 'til the end of time

From the top of this mountain

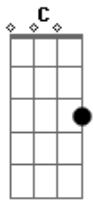

Beyond the horizon

Indigo blue

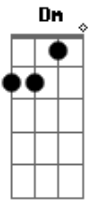

Puddling all over my eyes

(C Am G)
