

Jake Bugg - The Odds

Tom: Db
Intro: Ab

Ab
A man of great ambition he pushed himself to
A man upon a mission with great riches to achieve Db
All his friends admired him
And every word they trusted and believed Ab
And the odds seem forever in his favour Gb Db Ab
He made a sound investment in his own abilities Db Ab
A healthy clientele and some committed employees Db Ab
Well regarded in the town, money to be made, and cash be found Ab
And the odds seem forever in his favour Gb Db Ab

Db
Sooner or later the man is bound to fall Ab
Db
Won't find (ma Gb Db Ab
Sooner or later it's the end of the road Gb Db Ab
Does the wind don't blow forever without waver Gb Db Ab
(some unintelligible speech)
But the odds were not endeavored Gb Db
Forever in your favour Ab

Ab
You're expensive pockets are empty and you're feeling insecure Db
I think you may resent it, and in fact, I'm pretty sure Ab
Is being wealthy really all that far from being poor
I'm not so sure Ab
And the odds are not forever in your favour Gb Db Ab

Acordes

