

James Bay - Clocks Go Forward

Tom: C
Intro: G Bm A

Bm A G
Darkness bleeding in, the sun is getting low

Bm A G
No diamonds in the trees, only leaves of gold

Em Bm A G
And our long days in the heat haze start to fade

G Bm
We can hide under sheets, under heavy covers

A
So deep as the night draws in

G Bm A
And we'll be slow hearted lovers 'til the clocks go forward again

(Intro)
Again, again, again, yes

Bm A G
When there's no blue above, gonna keep my summer clothes

Bm A
'Cause there's still a field of green underneath the falling snow

Em Bm A G
When our hands grow so cold and hard to hold

G Bm
We can hide under sheets, under heavy covers

A
So deep as the night draws in

G Bm A
And we'll be slow hearted lovers 'til the clocks go forward again

(Intro)
Again, again, again, yes

G A Bm G
Stay warm,

A Bm Dm
close your eyes

A Bm
Let time fly

G A Bm G
Stay close,

A Bm Dm
stay right here

A Bm
Nothing to fear

(intro 2x)

G Bm
We can hide under sheets, under heavy covers

A G
So deep as the night draws in

G Bm A
And we'll be slow hearted lovers 'til the clocks go forward again

(Intro)
Again, again, again, yes
