

James Blunt - Dancing Days

Tom: G
Intro: Em B7 G A2 x2

Verse 1

Em B7
Young man with a stone to throw
G A2
Take a breath and just let it go
Em B7
Angry man with a cross to bare
G A2
Now you seem life just isn't fair

Bridge 1

C G
Oh, let it go
Am
Cos, you wake up in happy days

Face the music
C
In your eyes you've made your bed

Chorus

G D
Read what the papers say
C
Your dancing days are over

The smile on your face will never hide your shame
G D
You can't escape what they say
C
Your dancing days are over

The ghosts you see are shouting out your name Em B7 G A2

Verse 2

Em
Oh how you danced
B7
Oh how you sang
G A2
There's a feeling here that you began
Em

Oh how you stood and stared

B7
Held onto every breath

G
It seemed the world stood still
A2

Transfixed by every step

Bridge 2

C G
Oh, let it go
Am
Cos a lesser man would be your crowd
C
Captivation, lesser men will tear you down

Chorus

Post Chorus

Am
The ghosts you see are shouting out your name
C
The very crowd demand it's not to blame
Am
The demi man celebrates his pain
C
So glad to be with him through your pain

Middle 8

Em B7
Old man sings his final song
G A2
And wonders where it all went wrong

Chorus x2

Outro

Am
The ghosts you see are shouting out your name
C
The very crowd demands it's not to blame
Am
The demi man celebrates his pain
C (Finish) Em
So glad to be with us through your pain
