

James Morrison - If the rain Must Fall

Tom: E

Verso 1:

Oh life can be strange
 Good and bad in so many ways
 And in time you will find
 That things are not always what they seem

Well I've got something to say
 But you might laugh, joke or run away
 Cause I'm awkward and nervous
 Sometimes I don't say much at all

Refrão:

But if the rain must fall
 If I lose it all
 If the world comes down and takes my soul
 If the sky turns black
 And theres no way back
 It won't matter much to me
 If I had you
 All I need is your love
 That's all I need

All I need is your love

Verso 2:

Oh well dreams can come true
 If you know inside you really want them to
 Or you can sit you can wait
 You can leave your fate in someone else's hands
 Oh but I, I want you
 And nothing else can make me feel the way you do
 So I'm waiting, I'm wishing
 That it's me you'll be holding tonight and every night

Refrão:

But if the rain must fall
 If I lose it all
 If the world comes down and takes my soul
 If the sky turns black
 If theres no way back
 It won't matter much to me
 If I had you
 All I need is your love
 That's all I need
 All I need is your love
