

James Taylor - Her Town Too

```
Tom: D
                                                                It used to be her town
   (intro) G7M Gbm7 Em A Gbm7 A Em A Em
                                                                It used to be her town, too
                                                                Bm7 Gbm7
                                                                It used to be her town
She's been afraid to go out
                                                                Em7 G G7M
                                                                It used to be her town, too
A Em
She's afraid of the knock on her door
A Gbm7 A Em
                                                                Gbm7
There's always a shade of a doubt
                                                                Well, people got used to seeing them both together
A Em
                                                                Bm7 E
She can never be sure
                                                                But now he's gone and life goes on
A Gbm7 A Em
                                                                G A Fm
Who comes to call
                                                                Nothing lasts forever, oh no
                                                                 A Gbm7 A Em
Maybe the friend of a friend of a friend
                                                                She gets the house and the garden
A Gbm7 A
Anyone at all
                                                                He gets the boys in the band
Em G
Anything but nothing again
                                                                Some of them his friends
Dmaj9
                                                                A Gbm7 A
It used to be her town
                                                                Some of them her friends
It used to be her town, too
                                                                Some of them understand
Bm7 Gbm7
                                                                Em A Gbm7
It used to be her town
                                                                Lord knows that this is just a small town city
Em7 G A Em
                                                                A Em A Em
It used to be her town, too
                                                                Yes, and everyone can see you fall
A Gbm7 A Em
Seems like even her old girlfriends
                                                                It's got nothing to do with pity
                                                                A Em A
Might be talking her down
                                                                I just wanted to give you a call
Em A Gbm7
                                                                Dmaj9
She's got her name on the grapevine
                                                                It used to be your town
A Em
                                                                G7M
                                                                It used to be my town, too
Running up and down
                                                                Bm7 Gbm7
The telephone line
                                                                You never know 'till it all falls down
                                                                 Em7
Talking 'bout someone said, someone said
                                                                Somebody loves you
                                                                G Dmai9 G7M
A Gbm7 A
Something 'bout, something else
                                                                Somebody loves you
Someone might have said about her
                                                                Darling, somebody still loves you
Em A Gbm7 A
She always figured that they were her friends
                                                                Gbm7
                                                                I can still remember
                                                                 Em7 G
But maybe they can live without her
                                                                When it used to be her town, too
Dmai9
```

Acordes

