VERSE 1

I've been wand'rin' early and late,
From New York City to the Golden Gate.
And it don't look like I'll ever stop my wanderin'.

VERSE 2

My daddy was an engineer, my brother drives a hack,
My sister takes in laundry while the baby balls the jack.
And it don't look like I'll ever stop my wanderin'.

VERSE 3

I've been in the army, I've worked on a farm,
And all I've got to show is the muscle in my arm.
And it don't look like I'll ever stop my wanderin'.

VERSE 4

My ma, she died when I was young,
My daddy took to stealin' and he got hung.
And it don't look like I'll ever stop my wanderin'.

VERSE 5

Snakes in the ocean, eels in the sea,
I let a red-headed woman make a fool out of me.
And it don't look like I'll ever stop my wanderin'.

VERSE 6

Well, I've been wand'rin' early and late,
From New York City to the Golden Gate.
And it don't look like I'll ever stop my wanderin'--
No, it don't look like I'll ever stop my wanderin'.
