

James Vincent McMorrow - Sparrow And The Wolf

Tom: C

^C
Sparrow and wolf lay as still as the blades of the grass
^{Am} Like worn leather boots, of colour and size that would last ^C

^C
^C Caught them a lark in a trap, and each held a wing
^{Am} Then they tore it apart, before that small bird could sing ^C

^C
^C Confused by the wind, bruised by the size of the rain
^{Am} She turned in to him, begged for the light to remain ^C

^C
^C But plans have been made, all the furniture sold
^{Am} So store up your hate, use it for warmth when you're cold ^C

^F
^F For i have seen no joy, only danger,

^C
^C I see no joy, only strangers,

^G
^G I see no joy, see no joy in this world ^F

^F
^F Should you, choose to go, please be careful of,

^C
^C Lonesome roads, men who travel them,
^G Will not know, will not know of your ways ^F

^F
^F Oh-oo-oh

^{Dm}
^{Dm} Oh-oo-oh

^F
^F Oh-oo-oh

^{Dm} ^F
^{Dm} Oh-oo-oh ^F

^G

(^C ^{Am} ^F)

^F
^F Still i have, seen no joy, only dangers, i ^C

^C
^C See no joy, only strangers, i

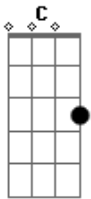

^G
^G See no joy, see no joy in this world, ^F

You should choose to go, please remember what

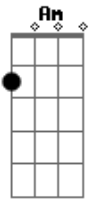

^C
^C You have learned, from the little bird,

^G ^F
^G Always dear, always dear to my heart ^F
