

Jamestown Revival - Crazy World (Judgement Day)

tom: ^G It's hard to slow the steady march of time ^D
 [Ponte]

[Primeira Parte]

^D Megaphone marauders beating down my battered door
^C Master of the soap-box gonna shout a little more
^D Tin Pan Alley tomcat said I'd be a millionaire
^C I lost my sense of time, I didn't even care

[Ponte]

^D I tried believing, believing in the goodness of the man
^D I learned my lesson, he took all I had, turned around and ran

[Refrão]

^D Yeah man, it's still a crazy world
^C I guess some things are never gonna change
^D Yeah man, what you gonna do
^F Gets harder every day, just tryin' to make it through it's true
^F Maybe Judgment Day is overdue

[Segunda Parte]

^D Walking home alone I took a trail down through the pines
^G Serenaded by the song of a world I'd left behind
^D Songbird singing in a minor key everything I see reminding me

^D Has it all been decided, I worry that I never had a choice
^D Have we all been misguided, just another voice, adding to the noise

[Refrão]

^D Yeah man, it's still a crazy world
^C I guess some things are never gonna change
^D Yeah man, what you gonna do
^F Gets harder every day, just tryin' to make it through - it's true
^F Maybe Judgment Day is overdue

^D Are we just a terrorizing no good group of criticizing fools
^D Racing towards our Judgment Day?
^D Hope you're nimble, hope you're quick, hope you clear the candlestick

^G That's burning with a holy rolling flame
^D Are we just and agonizing, no good group of idolizing fools
^D Running 'round without a clue?
^D Has it always been this way, is this how it's gonna stay
^G Is there any way we'll make it through?
^F Maybe Judgment Day is overdue
