

Janelle Monáe - Make The Bus

Tom: G

The way you are now
 You're never gonna make the bus,
 Everybody's so impressed
 You've got "Do androids dream of electric sheep?" under your pillow
 Oh oh oh
 I saw you spit on London just like you were Peter Pan
 The way you are now
 You're never gonna make it in my kitchen,
 Everybody's so excited
 Last I was here I was convinced I was your favorite warrior
 Oh oh oh

Refrão:
 I've got a terrible fix-ation
 Can't get it off my mind
 Don't want to really get to know it better
 Want to keep it in the realm of fantasy
 You wanted me just for a holiday
 Or was it to pad your resume?
 What do you give me but unwanted breakthroughs

Strange how certain details subvert everything
 I've got a terrible fixation
 Can't get it off my mind
 Don't really want to know it better
 Want to keep it in the realm of fantasy
 O-M-G W-T-T
 Aww girl we been through hell about it! Then I see our friends and Everybody's so excited
 I'm standing over you eating juicy fruits till it gets in your eye
 Oh oh oh

Refrão:
 I've got a terrible fix-ation
 Can't get it off my mind
 Don't want to really get to know it better
 Want to keep it in the realm of fantasy
 I've got a terrible fixation
 Can't get it off my mind
 Don't really want to know it better
 Want to keep it in the realm of fantasy
