

Janis Joplin - One Good Man

Tom: E

Música :

(Janis Joplin)

Os solos são tocados na pentatônica de Em (com slide)

E
Honey, I love to go to parties
And I like to have a good time,
But if it gets too pale after a while
Honey and I start looking to find

A
One good man.

E
Hmm, don't you know I've been searching,
Oh yes I have!

B
One good man,

A
Oh ain't much, honey ain't much,

E
It's only everything, whoa.

E
An' I don't want much outa life,
I never wanted a mansion in the South.
I just-a want to find someone sincere
Who'd treat me like he talks,

A
One good man.
E
Oh honey don't you know that I've been looking.
B
Oh, one good man
A
Ain't much, honey it ain't much,
E
Oh, it's only everything.
All right.

SOLO: E, A, E, B, A, E - (com o mesmo compasso dos versos)

E
Some girls they want to collect their men,
They wear 'em like notches on a gun.
Oh honey, but I know better than that,
I know that a woman only needs one.

A
One good man, oh,

E
Oh baby don't you know I've been looking, hmm.

B
One good man,

A
It ain't much, no, no honey it ain't much,

E
Oh, it's only every little thing,
Just-a everything, everything
Ah yeah.
