G Who's thinking about you now? Gbm Bm

Em Em7 A7 If you were building a wall, who would tear it all down and pull you through? G Who's thinking about you? G (riff) Gbm

Bm Who'd care enough to send you flowers, that you could call at all hours, Em Em7 A7 And give your love to? A7 G Gbm

Bm Somebody must believe if they could see what I see Bm If they haven't, well they will Em Em7 A7 A7 Baby they all will

G Just when you suspect that life couldn't get no harder, something comes Along and makes your dark day darker Gbm Bm Em Em7 A7

G The weight of it all falls on you G Who will be the one to listen when it's time to listen? G Who will be the one to miss you when you've gone missing? Gbm Bm

G Well, I do. Em A7 Do I qualify, qualify, qualify, qualify, qualify? G

I want to be the one to help you ignore Mr. Loneliness pleading his head Into your door. Gbm

I'm hoping you can feel me. Abm Bm A7

I'm hoping you can feel me in your chest, chest, yeah G

I'm hoping that you notice how you're blessed, yeah

G I feel like starting something. Gbm Bm Em Em7

A7 I feel like calling off today to be with you. G Bm Gbm Bm

Yeah, I believe we all do something that's familiar like a deja vu, Familiar like a deja vu G

Yeah, and I know you're smoking, I've seen your fire I know in love you've been giving it up Em A7

So do I qualify, qualify, qualify, qualify, qualify?

G I want to be the one to help you move from Mr. Loneliness living in the Kitchen of your home. Gbm

I'm hoping you can feel me. Abm G A7

I'm hoping that I don't run out of breath, breath, yeah. Ooh... Ooh... [Assobios]
