

Jason Mraz - You Make Me High

Tom: G

there's a little drop down thing he does at the end of the pattern every once in a while, and that is:

well I don't know just what I'm here for I want more than words can describe I've been deprived can you believe it my whole world, well it's falling apart well it falls, still it falls, well it falls apart around me and you pick me back up oh, said you pick me back up oh, you're gonna pick me back up and you get me high said you pick me back up

 cause I'm drinking all of the tears you cry and I don't wish to know my ending I just say

I wanna know when I begun
 I wanna know where it started from where it all had started from cause I feel like I am spinning I feel like I'm spinning well I feel just like I'm spinning I'm spinning around I said I feel like I am spinning all around the summer and the winter comes and another storm it falls, well it falls, still it falls apart around me

 and you get me high
 oh my, my, my

say, I drinking all of the tears you cry breathing every breath that you sigh, I I I am, shit, I'm breathing all of the tears that you cry that you cry all the tears that you cry every breath that you sigh
